Vision

The FDP aims to equip faculty members with empirical, theoretical, practical, technical, and applied approaches to dealing with current generation Z students and also navigating future career growth in the dynamic pedagogy demands. Academic planning, effective learning, and documenting the academic journey are essential components of faculty development.

Objectives

- Pedagogy / Pedagogy Tools
- Lesson Plan and Content Delivery
- Assessment Purpose and Tools
- Marking and Assessment Strategies
- Formulating Learning Outcomes
- Knowledge Upgradation and Research
- Student Psychology

Key take-aways

The FDP outreaches academicians a platform to understand the challenges of pedagogy tools in Architectural Educations in practical terms. Participants will be able to explore and interpret pedagogy through mapping and designing curriculum development, innovative teaching techniques, building teaching portfolio, career enhancement, documenting academic data and ability to understand the behaviour psychology of the young learners.
